

GM's rocket-like 1959 Cadillac Cyclone concept, pictured here in this undated handout photo, boasted an autopilot system that steered the car and radar in front nose cones that warned of a collision and automatically applied the brakes.

Photo credit: Reuters

December 5 – 7, 2012
Sheraton Premiere at Tysons Corner
8661 Leesburg Pike, Vienna, Virginia 22182

Commonwealth of Virginia Governor's Transportation Conference

Intelligent Transportation Systems

This session will discuss advances in vehicle connectivity; automation and autonomous vehicles; questions concerning laws and regulations keeping pace with technology; new technology applications for improving safety and reducing congestion; and the Automated Traffic Management (ATM) test beds that are being built on I-66 in Virginia.

Panelists:

- Jacqueline “Jackie” Glassman,
Partner, Hogan Lovells and former NHTSA Chief Counsel
- Charles Kilpatrick,
Chief Deputy Commissioner for the Virginia Department of Transportation.
- Michael Noblett,
IBM Global Development Executive for Intelligent Transportation Systems.

Moderator:

- Bruce Gould,
Executive Director, Virginia Motor Vehicle Dealer Board

December 5 – 7, 2012
Sheraton Premiere at Tysons Corner
8661 Leesburg Pike, Vienna, Virginia 22182

Commonwealth of Virginia Governor's Transportation Conference