

Meet Snap Dragon And His Friends

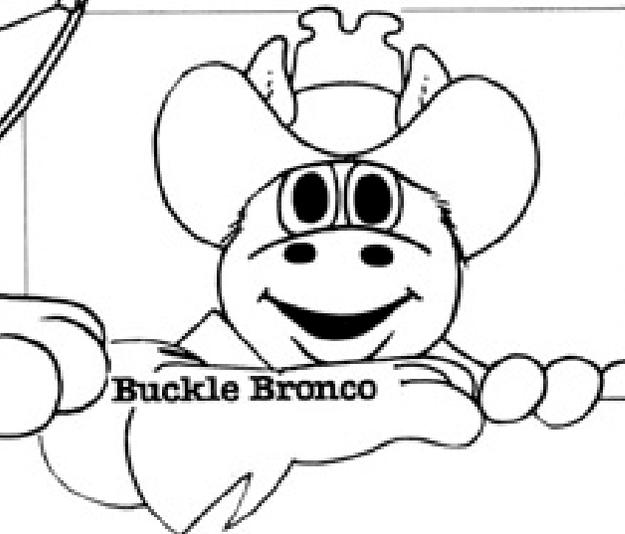

Hi! My name is Snap Dragon.
These are my friends – Kitty Cruiser,
Rhino Rider and Buckle Bronco.
We all want to be your friends, too!
We also want you to be safe.
This book has lots of fun things to do.
They will show us how to have fun and be safe.
I hope you like it.

(Before you cross a street, you must look out for traffic. Look left, then look right and then look left again. If nothing is coming, cross the street safely.)

Walking safely is very important.

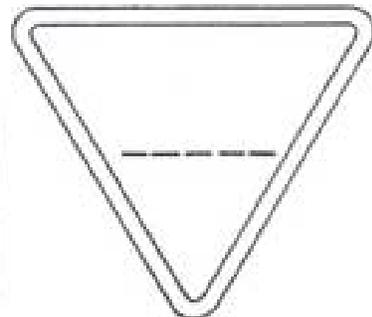

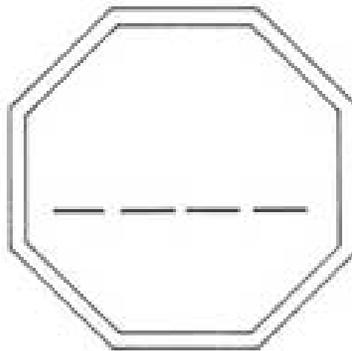

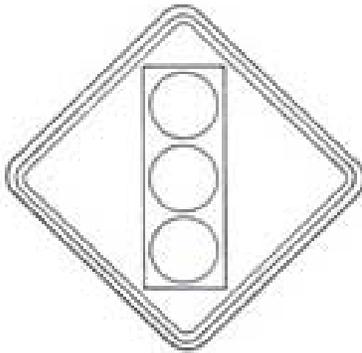

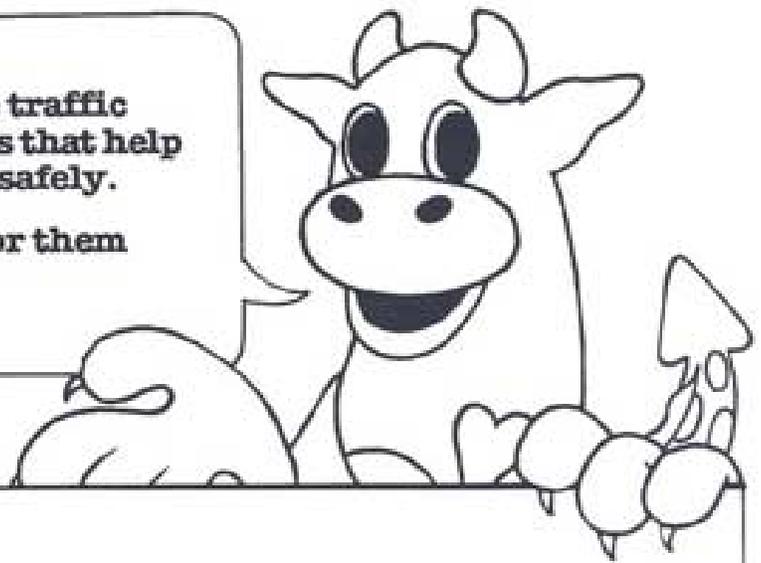

You must be careful to obey all rules.

See if you can go from home to school without a problem.

Let's color some traffic signals and signs that help us walk or ride safely.

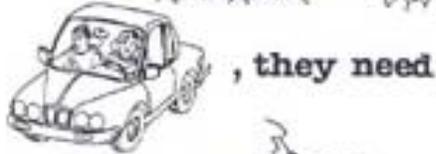

Be sure you color them right.

Riding in a car is fun.

Why is it important to buckle up?

The first letter of each picture will tell you.

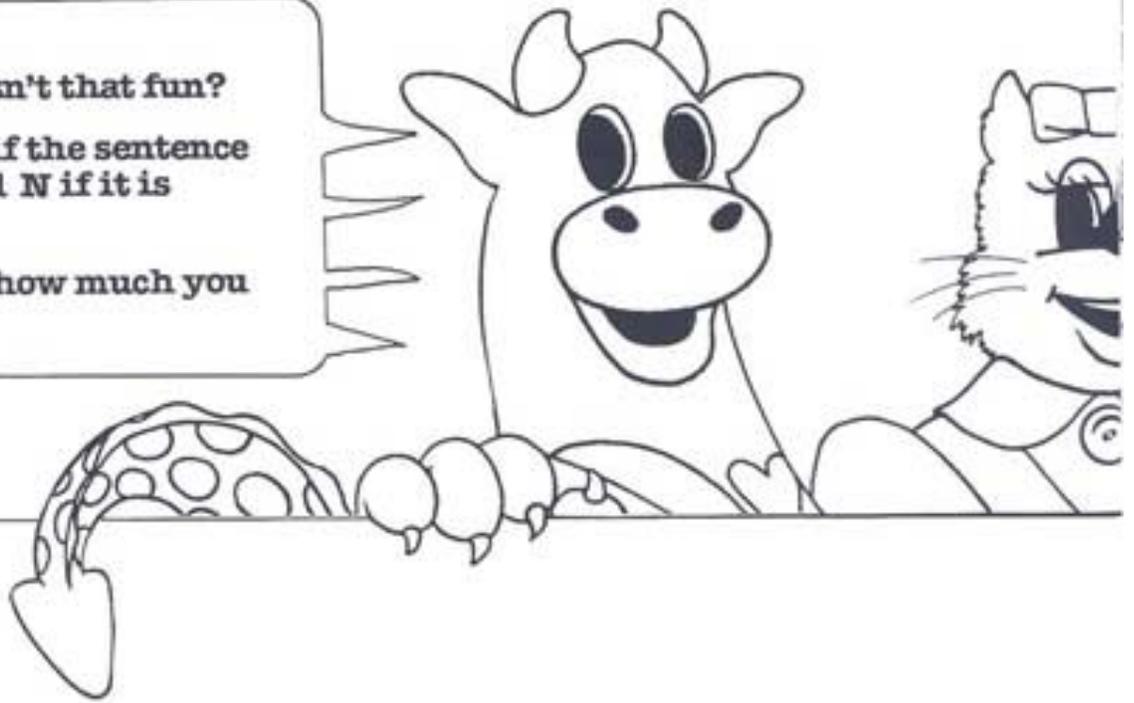

Whoops! We're missing something! Draw our safety belts on us and then color our pictures.

Now, wasn't that fun?

Mark Y if the sentence is yes and N if it is no.

Let's see how much you learned!

1. I should yell at the driver when I am in a car. ()

2. I should always wear my safety belt in a car. ()

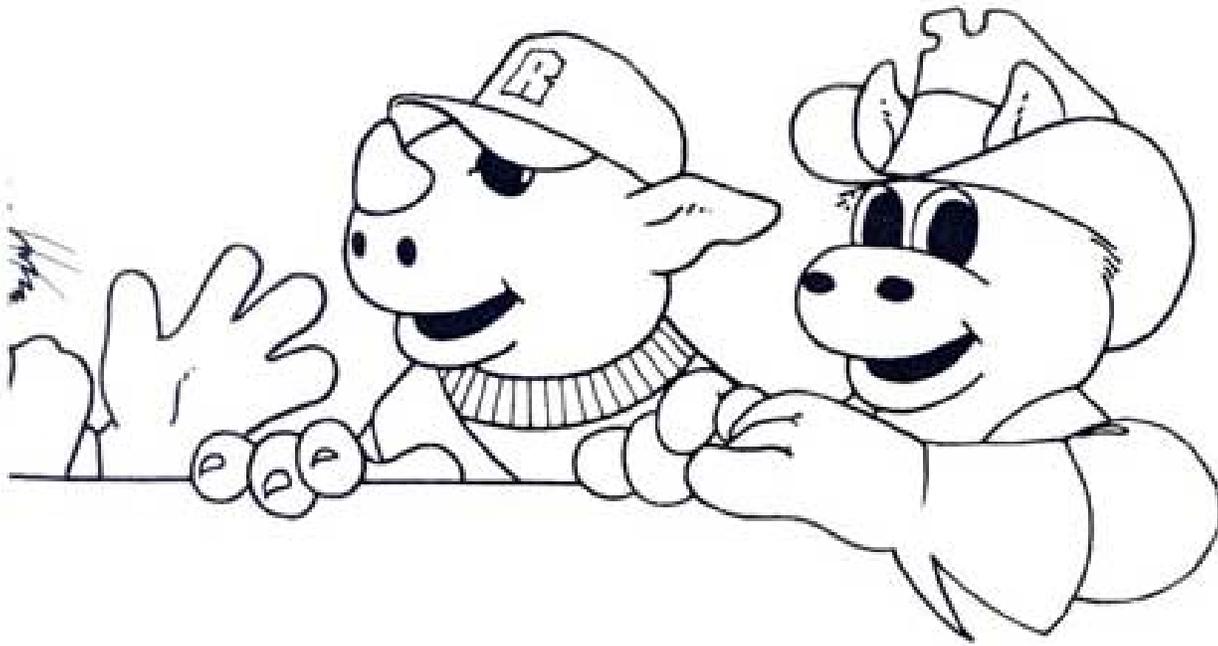

3. I should always obey a crossing guard or safety patrol. ()

4. I should put my arms out of the school bus window. ()

5. I should never cross the street in the middle of the block. ()

6. Policemen and policewomen are my friends. ()

7. I should wear dark clothes at night when I ride my bicycle. ()

8. I should look left, then right and then left again before crossing a street.

9. I should wiggle like a worm when I ride in a car.

10. I should not stand up when the school bus is moving.

11. I should have a light on my bicycle.

12. Safety belts save lives.
