

DMV INFORMATION - USE CRITERIA

Purpose: To assist the customer in completing Section L of the Commercial Information Use Application form US 532A and Section J of the Government Information Use Application form US 532B.

User Qualification

- Valid user- proper ID/Business or Professional License; official function for government entities
- Valid use of information — allowed under applicable laws and regulations
- Completed and approved DMV Commercial Information Use Application (US 532A) or Government Information Use Application form (US 532B)

Password Codes/Authorized User Passwords and Codes

- Will be assigned by DMV/Information Technologies Systems Administration
- Access codes issued to user for access and billing
- Authorized users have distinct access codes

Information/File Security

- User should keep all information in a secure area or locked cabinet
- Access to these areas or files must be limited by physical security measures
- Propose an audit/management control over access and dissemination of requested information

Computer Security

- Computer terminals or personal computers must be in physically secure area
- Computerized storage will only be allowed as expressly written in an information use agreement, addendum, or contract and
- Storage media and devices must be physically secure and/or secured by appropriate computerized security measures (acceptable industry standards)
- For automated interfaces/electronic extraction and storage of data, if applicable, address how you plan to secure the following items:
 - Records, files and systems
 - Names and addresses of data extraction method and software creator/vendors
 - Network diagrams and descriptions of data extraction methods and software
 - Descriptions of system support processes including backup methods and frequencies

User Logs

- Users must keep an access log of authorized users, dates and times accessed, purpose accessed, subject of inquiry, user making access, and a copy of the information use agreement,
- For driver history information, users must keep a valid signed authorization to act as an agent for the data subject, as required by statute, rule, or regulation.

Secondary Dissemination Logs

- All persons or entities receiving a copy (physical, computerized or photocopy) of information from the user should be listed in a chronological log stating what information was released, in what format, and for what purpose.

Rule and Regulation Compliance

- The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) may audit a user's compliance with the stated rules and regulations concerning DMV information.
- All users are subject to records review and on-site audits. Examples of why an audit may be conducted are as follows:
 - Complaints received concerning information use
 - Number of records accessed in a given timeframe
 - Random review/audit by DMV
 - Cyclical review (yearly, semi-annually, monthly)